Verland is a non-profit family of person-centric community homes and supports serving people with intellectual disabilities, many of whom have multiple physical challenges. In 37 community homes throughout the region, and at the 10-home main campus in Sewickley, Verland clients reside in settings that provide comfort, safety, and a dignified State-of-the-Heart® lifestyle.

Our professionally trained staff provides lifelong residential, medical, dental, educational, recreational, and therapy services and programs to this highly challenged population.

We are grateful to have your presence and support at our 37th Annual Verland Open. Your generosity will enable us to continue providing essential, lifelong supports and services for the people we serve.

Thank You!
